Trusted Neutrals. Timely Resolution. Private, Tailored Processes.

Family law disputes are legally complex, challenging and stressful. Resolving such matters at JAMS can reduce stress and allow families to move on with their lives without unnecessary delays.

Trusted family law neutrals. Our experienced panel includes retired judges, retired appellate justices, retired commissioners and attorney-neutrals who have handled thousands of cases, including high-profile matters, and are dedicated to resolving the complicated legal and financial issues that arise in family law.

Timely, cost-effective solutions. JAMS offers efficient resolution at competitive rates. In-person, hybrid or virtual sessions with a family law neutral can be scheduled on dates that are convenient for all parties.

Privacy and confidentiality in a neutral setting. Whether your session is being conducted at one of our Resolution Centers or remotely, JAMS has your comfort in mind. We provide concierge-level client service, including highly skilled case managers, virtual ADR moderators, and premium technology and amenities.

Flexible dispute resolution formats tailored to meet the needs of each case. JAMS neutrals are available to resolve discrete issues or entire cases and offer a variety of styles and approaches. They serve as temporary judges, discovery referees, settlement officers, mediators and arbitrators in disputes involving, but not limited to the following:

- Spousal and child support • Child custody and parenting coordination • Relocation
- Allocation of debt and assets • Breach of fiduciary duty claims • Capacity Issues
- Characterization of property • Marriage and domestic partner dissolution
- Validity of pre- or post-nuptial agreements • Attorneys' fees and costs
- Valuation and disposition of family-owned businesses
